Cookie Policy

The data controller, EPAYNETWORK LTD., a company duly incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom with registered number 14059689 and registered office at Suite 4, 72, Great Tithfield street, London, United Kingdom, W1W 7QW, utilizes cookies on the website https://e.pn/. This Cookie Policy elucidates the types of cookies employed, the information gathered about visitors, and the purposes of processing such data. For inquiries regarding this Cookie Policy, please contact us via email at support@epn.net.

Cookies are succinct data files that browsers on personal computers, phones, or laptops detect and store from visited websites. These files optimize browsing experiences by recollecting preferences, including habits, actions, and settings, to eliminate redundant data entry. Cookies may also monitor website visit frequency, gather statistical data on visitor numbers, deliver pertinent advertising content, or assess the efficacy of ad campaigns on third-party platforms.

The following cookie classifications is used on the website:

1. By duration:

- Session cookies: Temporary files expiring upon user site departure.

- Persistent cookies: Files retained on devices until deletion or expiry.

2. By purpose:

- Necessary cookies: Imperative for navigation, performance, security, and functionality, these are essential for information and service delivery. For instance, these cookies enable you to browse our site and log in to your account. Instead, unless these cookies are used, some parts of our site simply won't work as they should. Please note that the cookies required are mandatory and do not require consent.

- Preference cookies ("Functional"): Permit website personalization based on user preferences for future visits.

- Statistical cookies: Enhance website performance by indicating user behaviors without revealing personal data. These cookies shall not use any personal data and only provide aggregated data to us. Where Google Analytics cookies are used, we not only anonymize the data collected, but also ensure that data sharing is disabled and that we do not use other Google services in conjunction with Google Analytics cookies unless you have expressed your consent to the use of marketing cookies. For instance, these cookies track the number of visitors to our website and monitor how visitors move around our website. Doing so enables us to improve how our website works, for example, so that users can easily find what they are looking for.

- Marketing cookies: Select advertised content, measure marketing campaign success, and track visitor actions across platforms. These cookies are placed on our site by third party service providers and may remember your browsing activity and actions on different sites, as well as analyze demographic information such as age and gender. In addition, marketing cookies may be used to track the effectiveness of our advertising campaigns on third party websites. These cookies enable us, for instance, to advertise our services to potential customers after they leave our site and to offer those potential customers adverts on other sites they visit later.

3. By the party responsible for the implementation of cookies:

- Cookies issued by the website itself:

First-party cookies originate from the website and are primarily used to store user data and preferences.

- Cookies set by third parties:

Third-party cookies are placed by external entities and are utilized for data collection, demographic analysis, targeted marketing, etc. Third parties have access to the data collected through their cookies and may adjust their cookie settings at their discretion. They may also engage other partners for cookie matching. The specific cookies may consist of various types. For more details on third-party cookies and their respective partners, refer to the third party's privacy policy.

How to adjust cookie preferences:

You can withdraw your consent to cookies here, in which case only necessary cookies will be saved. Deleting cookies may impact browsing speed, limit certain website functionalities, or block website access in some instances. You can configure your browser to accept, reject, or notify you when cookies are downloaded. Refer to your browser's Help menu for instructions as each browser is different. Your device's operating system may have additional cookie controls.
