- 3.1. The Customer may start to use the Services after completing Account registration by providing certain information as requested on the Account registration form, in particular:
 - Login (Customer's email address);
 - Password;
 - Contact information (Telegram link, Skype link, etc.).
- 3.2. The Company is entitled both to act on behalf of third parties and partially or fully transfer the performance of its obligation to third persons, provided that it arises from the essence of the obligation or is more expedient for the purpose of providing Services, considering the circumstances and depending on the Customer's place of residence or their seat and/or for any other reason at the discretion of the Company.
- 3.3. When the Customer completes Registration, the Customer creates the Account. Account may also include other information the Customer provides to the Company for the replenishment of the virtual Wallet.
- 3.4. The Company has the right to refuse to open the Account without giving any explanation (freedom of contract right) and has the right to limit the rights or fully block account of certain groups of Customers in terms of specific rights, including limiting access and/or usage rights with respect to certain parts of the Services.

4. Account

- 4.1. After registering the Account, the Customer has an opportunity to replenish the Wallet, make transactions and use other functionalities offered by the Company. The Customer may open separate Wallets for Virtual Items denominated in different currencies.
- 4.2. Transfer Orders may be given to the Company any time after the replenishment of the virtual Wallet and shall be fulfilled by the Company within the reasonable period, provided that the Customer filled in the email address of the payee and the number of Virtual Items to be transferred. Exchange rates are placed on the Website.

- 4.3. The Customer agrees that all Transfer Orders initiated and confirmed by the Customer shall be finite and irrevocable. If the Company suspects or identifies a transaction as fictitious or fraudulent, it has the right to decline or block the transaction. This is done to protect the integrity of the platform or system, prevent fraudulent activities, and comply with legal and regulatory requirements. It is important for customers to adhere to the platform's Terms of Service and engage in lawful and honest transactions to maintain their access and trust on the platform.
- 4.4. If the Company detects suspicious activities related to fictitious transfers, the Company reserves the right to suspend or permanently block the Customer's account without prior notice. Fictitious transfers refer to transactions that are of a false, fraudulent, or misleading nature and may violate this agreement.
- 4.5. The Customer to whose name the Account has been registered shall be responsible for the rights and obligations related to the Account. Among other things, the Customer shall be a party of the transactions made through the Account.
- 4.6. The Account shall reflect:
 - Customer's personal data;
 - Wallets opened by the Customer and the number of Virtual Items disposed on these Accounts and Virtual Card;
 - Information about transactions, which were made using the Account, Wallets and Virtual Card;
 - Other information at the Company's discretion.
- 4.7. The Customer may not reveal, share or otherwise allow others to use Login, Password or Account. The Customer is responsible for the confidentiality of Login and Password and for the security of Customer's computer system (any devices used to enter the Account). The Company is not responsible for the use of Customer's Password and Login or for all of the communication and
- 4.8. activity that results from use of Customer's Password and Login by the Customer or by any person to whom the Customer may have intentionally or by negligence disclosed Login and/or Password in violation of this confidentiality provision. The Company is also not responsible for the use of Account by a person who fraudulently used Login and Password without Customer's permission. If the Customer believes that the confidentiality of Login and/or Password may have been compromised, the Customer shall change them immediately or notify the Company without any delay.

- 4.9. In the event of a violation of the Terms of Service or any agreements between the Customer and the Company, the Company reserves the right to initiate withdrawals from any Customer's accounts. This action may be taken to rectify the breach, recover losses incurred due to the violation, or as otherwise deemed necessary by the Company. We emphasize the importance of Customers adhering to the terms and agreements established with the Company to avoid any potential actions under this provision. All such withdrawals will be carried out in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, and the Company will exercise this right prudently and transparently. In the event of debt settlement not occurring within a 3-hour window, a penalty of up to 100% of the total outstanding debt shall be levied in favor of Company. Subsequent to this grace period, our legal department will initiate proceedings, and the account is subject to permanent suspension without any possibility of fund restitution.
- 4.10. The Customer may use an Unverified Account with the limitations specified in these Terms of Service or upgrade to the Verified Account by the means of Verification by providing necessary additional information and documents set out in the AML/KYC policy (Know Your Customer Policy). If documents are in a foreign language, the Company may require that the documents be translated into the language understandable for the Company. The Company may require that the translation must be notarized or certified by a sworn translator. The Customer shall bear the costs concerning the formalization, translation, certification of the documents and other related costs and they don't subject to reimbursement by the Company.
- 4.11. The Company may block the Account or refuse to fulfill the Transfer Order, depending on the degree of risk of the Customer's activities and/or transactions, if:
- The Company suspects that the Virtual Items on Customer's Account/Wallet/Virtual Card may be used to commit the money laundering, terrorism financing or other crime or have been received from criminal activity already committed;
 - The Customer fails to fulfill the obligations under these Terms of Service;
 - The Company is obliged to do so by the legal acts;
 - Transfers are made in breach of these Terms of Service and security requirements of Customer's account;
 - Transfers are suspicious, unauthorized or fraudulent;
 - The Company suspects that corresponding transaction, the Customer or connected person is related to the territory, area of activity, the Service or a person subject to sanctions or other national transaction limits;

- In other cases, at Company's discretion if Company believes that it is necessary or advisable in order to protect the Account and/or the Company's business interests/activity;
- In accordance with the individual terms of the card.

5. Scope of Service

- 5.1. The Company ensures the provision of the following Services to Customers via authorized third parties (as specified in these Terms of Use):
 - 5.1.1. Replenish of Wallet with currency that is to be exchanged to the Virtual Items at the exchange rate placed on the Website and updated regularly. When replenishing the Wallet, the estimated value is assigned, which is used later for the purpose of calculating the number of cryptocurrencies to be refunded upon withdrawal the Virtual Items as specified in clause 5.1.6.;
 - 5.1.2. Conversion of the Virtual Items denominated in one currency to the Virtual Items denominated in other currency at the exchange rate placed on the Website and in this way change the Virtual Items amount in the Wallet;
 - 5.1.3. Transfer of the number of Virtual Items indicated by the Customer to the third party also registered on the Website;
 - 5.1.4. Withdrawal of Virtual Items from the Wallet of the Customer and crediting them to the Wallet of a third party registered on the Website upon the request of such third party registered on the Website and upon Customer's confirmation of such withdrawal in execution of the Customer's obligations to such third party;
 - 5.1.5. Issuance of the Virtual Card upon the payment of the applicable Commission Fee and issuance of a security bond in the form of a pledge of Virtual Items in order to obtain a loan from the Company to be credited to the Virtual Card;
 - 5.1.6. Withdrawal of the Virtual Items from the Wallet. The currency to be credited to the Customer shall be calculated in accordance with the exchange rate specified on the website at the time of the transfer.
- 5.2. The Parties agree and understand that the fact of denomination of Virtual Items into different currencies is made for determining the number of Virtual Items to be deposited in the Wallet in the exchange of currency and the amount to be withdrawn and returned as currency, and does not in any case mean making with fiat money.
- 5.3. Obligations of the Company hereunder shall be limited to rendering the Services related to execution of Customer's Transfer Orders. The Company is not a party of any transaction concluded between the Customer and third parties registered on the Website, and accordingly:

- Shall not regulate and supervise compliance of the transaction with the requirements of the law and of other legal acts;
- Shall not consider claims of the Customer concerning non-fulfillment (undue fulfillment) of orders by recipients and their obligations under the transaction;
- Shall not bear any responsibility under any disputable issues arising between Customers.

6. Limits and refusals of transfers

- 6.1. To execute the Transfer Orders made through the Virtual Card the Customer shall comply with the requirements imposed on the Customer by the third party which could be provided additionally by the Company and/or third party.
- 6.2. The Company shall be entitled to dismiss a Transfer Order in case the Customer has not confirmed it by entering the confirmation code sent to the Customer's email address, Telegram account or if the balance of the Wallet is not sufficient to execute the Transfer Order.
- 6.3. The Company reserves the right to decline the execution of transfer orders if there is suspicion of involvement in fraudulent or unauthorized activities. This action is taken to provide protection against potential risks to both your assets and our platform.
- 6.4. With the objective of effective risk management, The Company reserves the right to decline the execution of transfer orders that are determined to pose an escalated risk to our platform, customers, or partners.
- 6.5. If the Company refuses to execute the Transfer Order, the Company will do it's best to indicate the reason and explain what needs to be done to correct the errors that prevented the Transfer Order from being executed, unless it would be impossible to do so or it would contradict legal requirements.

7. Commission fee and exchange rates

- 7.1. When it comes to the fees for our services, you can find all the details in the Commission List on our website. We have the flexibility to change these fees, whether it's an increase, decrease, or introducing new ones, and we'll do this on our own. For example, the minimum withdrawal amount is $100 and the withdrawal fee is 10%, which is detailed in the corresponding section of the website (<https://e.pn/support/faq>).
- 7.2. We'll express the fees for our services in US dollars, unless we specifically mention otherwise. And remember, these fees don't include any applicable taxes (like VAT).

- 7.3. If there are any taxes or additional charges that need to be added to your payment, we'll provide such information on request. We'll also give you a breakdown so you can see the total amount along with the Commission Fee.
- 7.4. If you're dealing with Virtual Items, you can always check out their exchange rates on our website. These rates are constantly being updated, so you'll have the most accurate information when you're making a transfer.

8. Grades

Maintenance of Grade:

- 8.1. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that to uphold their current grade level, herein referred to as the "Grade" it is imperative that their monthly transactional activity aligns with the criteria established for "Grade" as defined by the Company. Any deviation from meeting this condition shall result in an automatic downgrade to the level which monthly transactional activity aligns to designated by the Company.

Company's Discretion:

- 8.2. The Company explicitly reserves the unequivocal right to exercise its sole discretion in making determinations concerning the Customer's Grade. This includes, but is not limited to, the right to initiate a downgrade or nullification of the Customer's Grade in the event of any perceived or actual violation of the provisions set forth herein or any other Terms of Use governing the Customer's participation in the program.

Customer's responsibility:

- 8.3. The Customer assumes full responsibility for comprehending and adhering to the criteria outlined for the Grade and all other relevant Terms of Use specified by the Company. Failure to do so shall result in the Customer being subject to the consequences detailed in these provisions.
- 8.4. To learn more about the grades, please visit Company's website.

9. Personal Data

The Company proceeds personal data provided by the Customers for the provision of Services, including IP addresses, parameters of the browser, and other data necessary for preventing unauthorized access to the account by third parties. All questions of data flow, processing, use and storage are reflected in the Privacy Policy which is available on the Website as a separate document.

10. Liability

- 10.1. In the event of failure to comply and/or improper fulfillment of the obligations under these Terms of Use, the Parties shall be responsible in accordance with the provisions of these Terms of Use and the applicable laws.
- 10.2. The Company shall not bear liability for the Services provided or information forwarded by third parties in the course of Wallet use, issuance of payment instruments (cards), Virtual Items execution of payment transactions and etc. Any such relationships are regulated by the applicable agreements between the Customer and such third parties.
- 10.3. The Customer shall be responsible for all transactions accounted for in the Wallet and any transactions with the use of issued Virtual Cards.
- 10.4. The Company shall not be liable for any breach of the national laws by the Customer. The Customer shall repay to the Company the damages incurred as a result of any Customer's violations of the applicable laws when using the Services.
- 10.5. The Customer shall reimburse the Company's losses and pay compensations to the Company as well as indemnify the Company, his affiliates, cooperation partners and subcontractors against any claims or damages, costs or expenses (including expenses for legal support, penalties or forfeits) resulting from (a) violation by the Customer of these Terms of Use; (b) violation of applicable laws and regulations.
- 10.6. Any modifications or revisions to this present Terms of Service, posted on the official website of E.PN, shall come into effect immediately upon their publication.
- 10.7. The Customer undertakes the obligation to periodically review this Terms of Service for updates. The continued utilization of E.PN's products or services following the publication of changes signifies full acceptance and adoption of the new Terms of Use.
- 10.8. E.PN shall not bear responsibility for directly notifying each Customer of such changes. Consequently, it is imperative for Customers to routinely inspect the Terms for updates and alterations.
- 10.9. In the event of disagreement with any amendments to this Agreement, the Customer commits to discontinue the use of E.PN's products or services.

- 10.10. The Services, along with any associated content, and the Website, are made available under the principle of 'AS IS' or 'AS AVAILABLE' without any explicit or implicit warranties. The Company renounces all warranties to the maximum extent permissible under the relevant laws. As a result, the Company shall not be held accountable for indirect repercussions incurred by the Customer (such as profit loss) or damages arising from fluctuations in currency, rates, or other investment risks.
- 10.11. The Customer shall duly recognize that engaging in the trading or retention of digital assets encompasses inherent substantial risk. The valuation of such assets can experience significant fluctuations, leading to the substantial probability of financial loss for the Customer through the acquisition, sale, retention, or investment in digital assets. It is underscored that the services rendered by the Company operate outside the purview of oversight by financial authorities or any pertinent regulatory bodies. It is likely that these Services fall beyond the jurisdictional domain applicable to the Customer, consequently rendering their digital assets devoid of coverage under any governmental compensation scheme. In light of these circumstances, the Customer is admonished to judiciously deliberate whether engaging in transactions involving or retaining digital assets aligns suitably with the Customer's prevailing financial circumstances.
- 10.12. The Company shall in no case be liable for any actions and omissions of third parties involved in the provision of Services, including Virtual Items exchange, Virtual Card issue and other Services.
